SUBJECT : Organization and Meetings of the Logistics Career Board

REFERENCE: LI 20-110-1, dated 8 March 1954

1. GENERAL

This Instruction establishes the organization of the Logistics Career Board, and provides for the convening of Board meetings and for voting.

2. ORGANIZATION OF THE BOARD

a. The Logistics Career Board will consist of:

- (1) The Head of the Logistics Career Service ex-officio;
- (2) A Chairman to be appointed by the Director of Logistics to serve for an indefinite period of time;
- (3) Six Board Members appointed by the Director of Logistics consisting of the Assistant Director of Logistics and the Special Support Assistant as permanent members, and four division or staff chiefs as rotating members. Appointments of rotating members will be made for six-month periods on a staggered basis so as to maintain continuity of Board membership.

b. A Board Member unable to attend for reasons such as TDY, annual or sick leave, etc. will designate his deputy as alternate to attend these meetings.

c. Other individuals who will attend the Board meetings are:

- (1) The Chief of the Administrative Staff and the Chief of the Personnel and Training Branch, Office of Logistics, or their designated alternates, to serve as technical advisors to the Board;
- (2) Career Management Officer, Office of Logistics, or his designated alternate to serve as Secretary to the Board. He will be responsible for:
